MEMORARE

Remember O most gracious Virgin Mary that never was it known that anyone who fled to Thy protection, implored Thy help, and sought Thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto Thee, O Virgin of virgins, My Mother! to Thee I come; before Thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. Oh Mother of the Word incarnate! despise not my petitions, but, in Thy mercy, hear and answer me.

Amen.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, we turn to thee, O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee we come, before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, do not despise our petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer us. Amen

Description:
This database contains more than 3 million marriages in Ohio between 1970 and 2007. The records from 1971 aren't included because they aren't available from the Ohio Office of Vital Statistics. This is a collection of abstracts that were created with limited information for filing purposes. The information can then be used to find the marriage certificates at the individual county probate courts. The records contain the name of bride/groom, birth year, county of residence, county of license and marriage date.

Akron will face an uphill struggle as it enters its second year of big-time college football under coach Gerry Faust.

Faust, the former Notre Dame coach, was 7-4 in his first year with the Zips, who upgraded their schedule and made the move to Division I-A as an independent.

The timing for such a move has been less than exact. Only 10 seniors are listed on the roster, and only four starters return on offense, five if you count placekicker Bob Dombroski, last year's leading scorer with 63 points.

Gone are quarterback Vernon Stewart, the school's all-time leading passer, and Mike Clark, the all-time leading rusher. Returning is fullback Dan Hampton, a part-time starter last year who rushed for 375 yards.

"We're going to be a young, young football team," said Faust. "For us to be successful, a lot of untested kids will have to come through for us. We have a lot of question marks. However, I do feel we have the talent to get the job done."

Transfers and junior college players will also have to come through for the Zips. There are 25 such players on the roster.

One of them is Dwayne Shields, the former Glenville High star, who transferred from Ferris State. Faust said Shields would probably be the starting quarterback, although competing for the spot are sophomores Andy Kubik and Mark Unaitis, both of whom played last year, and Steve Brown, a transfer from Glendale Community College in Arizona.

Aside from wide receiver Milt Kimbrough, who started last year but caught only six passes, the flankers are green. Cornel Penland, a sophomore from Shaker Heights, was switched from running back to take advantage of his 4.5 speed.

The rebuilt offensive line will be based on returning tackles Gregg Townsend, 262 pounds, and John Buddenberg, 255. Both were starters last year.

Tight end will be a problem with the departure of Chris Kelley, who was a seventh-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers. One candidate is Jim Carroll, a transfer from Ohio State — if his back problems have subsided.

The defense returns six starters, headed by 260-pound nose guard Pierce Joiner. He led the team in tackles for loss with 15 for 79 yards. Tackle Doug Knepp, 240, led the interior linemen with 44 tackles.

Linebackers include starters Jay Miller, a senior from Mentor, Darryl Robinson and Mike Rahach, who led the team with 56 solo tackles and 54 assists. Miller has been moved around so much, he's called "Yo-Yo."

Gary Tyler is the lone returning starter in the defensive backfield. He had a team-leading six interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns. Tyler is the first junior since 1951 to be chosen a captain.

Finding a punter to replace Mike Knapp, who averaged 42 yards, is a priority. Bill Rudison, a transfer from Pitt, is the likely choice. "He's the best punter I've ever coached," says Faust.

The Zips open at Western Michigan on Sept. 5. They have games at Temple, Oregon State, and Louisville in the upgraded schedule.

"We're going to be a better team than we were last year," said Faust. "We may not win as many games, but we'll be a better team. The problem is that we also will be playing a lot tougher competition."

This is one in a Plain Dealer series of college football previews. Next: Ohio State.

Zips seeking real victories

University of Akron football coach Gerry Faust indicated yesterday that moral victories for the 2-5 Zips now have to take a back seat to the real thing.

"We've got to get some wins now," he said. "We've got to win some football games."

Basking in as much glow as one could find in a 42-0 loss to 12th-ranked Auburn, Faust said injuries were negligible with the exception of linebacker Mike Rahach (knee) and hope for the future was high with nothing but home games remaining.

The fact those teams — Long Beach State, Cal-Fullerton, New Mexico State and Temple — have a combined record of 5-19 is cause for optimism. "I hopefully expect (the Zips) to do well the rest of the year," Faust said.

■ Akron quarterback Mike Johnson has been put on the spot. After 12 turnovers in the last two games — seven interceptions and five fumbles, including three fumbled snaps — his job is now on the line.

"I'm disappointed in Mike Johnson's performance the last two weeks," said Faust. "We're going to simplify the offense for him some. ... If he doesn't perform (Saturday against Long Beach State at the Rubber Bowl), he is going to come out and sit for a while."

After losing the first three games Faust cut back and Johnson played well in back-to-back victories. Faust began adding to Johnson's repertoire again and the result was turnovers and two losses.

■ Kent State University coach Dick Crum predicted last week the Golden Flashes could win over league-leading Western Michigan if the Broncos tried to finesse the Golden Flashes instead of playing power football.

Kent won big, but the fact Western didn't overpower the Flashes was just part of the reason a four-game losing streak ended. Crum said his team had also gotten better.

■ Kent's Jamie Howell was the primary topic of discussion at Crum's weekly news conference. The defensive back was named the MAC defensive player of the week after intercepting three passes in Kent's 45-28 victory.

Crum said Howell could have had four interceptions, "but he dropped the easy one."

■ Another who played well for KSU was guard Jim Bell. For the second time this season, the junior from Warren started for injured Ben Stratton (knee) without missing a beat.

"He has played very, very well," Crum said. "As far as I'm concerned, the job is his now. When Stratton comes back, he'll have to win his job back. Bell is not a replacement any more. He is a starter."

Many times, injured players inherit their starting positions back when healed, but Crum said that is not always his policy. "I think (Bell) has taken the job because he played the whole game against Akron when Ben was hurt and played pretty well. Ben got his job back.

"Then Ben got hurt again and Jim does another super job for us."

■ In case you missed it, Youngstown State won a shootout last Saturday, 41-39, over Towson (Md.) State.

Sophomore quarterback Chris Gamble from Midpark might have lost his job in that game, however. Another sophomore, Frank Edie from West Branch, took over in the second quarter and played the rest of the way. YSU travels to Bowling Green this week.

Talented, experienced Zips are poised for big season

By ELTON ALEXANDER
STAFF WRITER

This is it. Or, at least, it should be.

The best is at hand for the Akron Zips. Mike Johnson, the best quarterback in Akron history, is back. So are tailbacks Doug Lewis and Derek Alston, the leading rushers for the Zips the past two seasons.

Akron has its best receiving corps, its most experienced offensive line and its best overall defense since coach Gerry Faust hit campus in 1986.

In short, this is the year the Zips — anchored by 23 seniors and 21 returning starters — should put it all together. No more excuses, no more sub .500 records.

"We're really not that far away," said Faust of the coming season.

Indeed. Though the Zips must play seven road games, the schedule is balanced with four Division I-AA opponents — Youngstown St., Eastern Illinois, Murray St. and Northern Arizona — and two in-state matchups at the Rubber Bowl against Kent and the University of Cincinnati.

The meat of Akron's schedule is at the top and bottom with the opener against Virginia Tech and the closer against Tennessee. In all but those two games the Zips could well be favored to win.

"We're excited because we're getting to the stage where we can have a solid Division I football program," said Faust, who inherited a IAA team four years ago and has now molded it to his style.

A lot of his excitement centers on Johnson. The 6-3, 190-pound left-hander literally stepped on campus and took over the starting job last year as a transfer from Mesa Junior College in Arizona. When the season ended he had put his name on 14 school records ranging from the most yards passing (2,170) to most passes completed in a season (142) to the best competition percentage in a game (15-of-19, 78.9%) against New Mexico State.

More than once Faust has called Johnson "the best quarterback I've ever had." This, remember, includes his coaching days at Cincinnati's Moeller High, where he had several state championship teams, and his five-year tenure at Notre Dame.

Yet strong as the quarterback position is with Johnson it pales by comparison to the tailback spot with Lewis, Alston and Troy Campbell. Lewis, a sophomore and the fastest of the lot, gained 609 yards last season. Alston, the Zips' leading rusher in 1987 with 689 yards, fell back in the shadows last year as Lewis emerged, but is nonetheless a proven runner, as indicated by his career average of 4.6 yards per carry.

However, good as that duo is, Campbell may be better. At 6-1, 205 pounds, the redshirt freshman from Florida is powerful enough to break tackles and fast enough to get away from pursuit.

There's more. The fullback spot has a proven blocker and short-yardage producer in senior Bob Singletary. But a pair of sophomores, Dirk Allen and Tyrone Nelson, are expected to see plenty of action, too.

"We have a good blend of experience, youth and speed to make this a position of strength," Faust said.

The same can be said for the entire team. The offensive line returns all five starters and seven lettermen overall. Not only that, they're big.

"It looks like we're going to average 275-280 (pounds) across the front line," Faust said. "So when we're in a situation where we need two, three yards for a first down, we'll be able to ram it down someone's throat."

Defensively, the Zips don't match the overall credentials of the offense, but seasoned experience, again, is at hand at nearly every position.

UNIVERSITY OF AKRON

COACH: Gerry Faust.
OVERALL RECORD: 46-41-1, 16-17 at Akron.
LAST YEAR: 5-6.
SCHEDULE: Toughest games with Virginia Tech and Tennessee. Of four Division I-AA opponents only one had a winning record in 1988.
KEY LOSES: Offensive lineman John Buddenberg, safety Bobby Lyons and cornerback Gary Tyler.
KEY RETURNING STARTERS: 10 on offense, 11 on defense and both kickers.
PLAYERS TO WATCH: QB Mike Johnson; tailback Doug Lewis; WR Leonard Thomas, DE Pierce Joiner; LB Mike Rahach and SS Shannon Wolfe.
TOP NEWCOMERS: TB Troy Campbell; WR Harold Robinson and NG Darryl Green.
TEAM STRENGTHS: Experience and depth on offense, size and speed at all the skill positions and veteran leadership.
TEAM WEAKNESS: Lack of depth on defense and still unproven ability to stop the opposition from moving the ball; allowed 357.3 yards per game last year and 19.4 points. But damage was big against quality opposition, allowing 37 points to Temple, 42 to Auburn and 32 to Kent.
OUTLOOK: Bright. Schedule is strong enough to be a solid test for the Zips, yet peppered with enough Division I-AA opponents to secure a winning season. With a little luck, like pulling an upset in opener with Virginia Tech, Akron could win nine games.

AKRON at VIRGINIA TECH

WHERE: Lane Stadium, Blacksburg, Va.
WHEN: Noon.
RADIO-TV: WZIP-FM/88.1 and WOAC Ch. 67 live. SportsChannel (4 p.m. tape delayed).
1988 RECORDS: Akron, 5-6; Virginia Tech, 3-8.
SERIES: First meeting.
COACHES: Gerry Faust, 46-41-1, 16-17 in third year at Akron; Frank Beamer, 47-40-2, 5-17 in second year at Virginia Tech.
AKRON UPDATE: Zips have potent offense, with veterans at all skill positions and along line. But defense is weak and loss of linebacker Mike Rahach (knee) will put heavy burden on offense to score big.
VIRGINIA TECH UPDATE: Hokies are known as tough defensive team, and all 11 starters return from last year. Questions are on offense, where Hokies had few long plays from scrimmage, indicating lack of speed. If that is solved, they could be tough.
KEYS: Akron must keep its defense off the field. Virginia Tech must score at least three touchdowns.
NEXT: Hosts Kent State next Saturday.

OHIO NOTEBOOK

This season, Lewis has blossomed into an all-purpose back who leads the Zips in rushing (553 yards) and receiving (16 receptions for 144 yards). In the Zips' victories over Bowling Green and Louisiana Tech, Lewis rushed for career highs of 139, then 148 yards and three touchdowns.

■ It looks as though the career of Akron linebacker Mike Rahach is over. The senior, who entered the season with 347½ tackles, had played sparingly this season before re-injuring his right knee last week in practice. He is expected to have an operation soon on the knee.

Ó mindenkor jelenlevő Isteni szív a Legméltóságosabb Oltáriszentségben kit emészt az égő szeretet a szenvedő lelkekért, légy irgalommal a te szolgád lelkével s ne légy szigorú a te ítéletedben, de engedj néhány cseppet szentséges szivedből az égő lángokra. Ó irgalmas Üdvözitő, küld el angyalaidat hogy vezessék a te elköltözött szolgád lelkét az enyhülés, világosság és békesség helyére.

Adj Uram örök nyugodalmat neki,
és az örök világosság fényeskedjék neki.
Nyugodjék békességben. Amen.
Jézusom, irgalom! (100 napi búcsú)
Máriának édes szive, légy az én menedékem. (300 napi búcsú)

O gentlest heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgment but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou O Merciful Saviour, send Thy Angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Merciful Jesus grant eternal rest.

FIREFIGHTER'S PRAYER

When I am called to duty, God, . . . Wherever flames may rage . . . Give me strength to save some life . . . Whatever be its age . . . Help me embrace a little child . . . Before it is too late . . . Or save an older person from . . . The horror of that fate . . . Enable me to be alert and hear the weakest shout . . . And quickly and efficiently . . . To put the fire out . . . I want to fill my calling and . . . To give the best in me . . . To guard my every neighbor and . . . Protect his property . . . And if according to my fate . . . I am to lose my life . . . Please bless with your protecting hand . . . . . My children and my wife.

A haunt grows in Parma

For the past 13 years, the popularity of what originally was intended as an alternative to horror stories of razor-blade-laced candy and other trick-or-treat terrors has risen like Dracula from the grave.

Back in 1974, Christopher J. Mouhlas got together with a few friends to stage a do-it-yourself haunt where the neighborhood kids could come without fear of having their candy X-rayed afterward or worse. "We wanted to restore the fun time that Halloween was for us when we were kids," Mouhlas recalled.

Since then, what started as a couple of guys in costume loping around a back yard in Parma has grown to an effort involving 17 people, mostly local parents, in a setting requiring two full days just to set up.

In keeping with the original spirit of the Haunted Yard, there is no admission. Mouhlas said a couple of years ago someone suggested accepting donations, and the $350 raised from the estimated 1,000 or more visitors to the yard last year was given to the Holy Name Cancer Home in Parma.

PD/GEORGE HEINZ

"We don't push for donations," Mouhlas said. "If we started charging money and everything ... that's not really keeping with the whole idea of this. It started as just something for the neighborhood kids, and we'd like to keep it that way. But it's funny, even the little kids'll put their little five cents in."

This year's featured attractions include the usual assortment of Halloween horrors — Dracula, Frankenstein, Jason (of "Friday the 13th"), Freddie (of "Nightmare on Elm Street"), the Werewolf, the Mummy, a witch and other ghostly exhibits.

Euclid edges Eastlake North

Euclid's regional tournament-bound Panthers edged Eastlake North, another regional semifinalist, 1-0, in nine innings yesterday in a Greater Cleveland Conference game on the losers' diamond.

Shortstop Jerry Drobnick singled with one out in the ninth, reached third on a wild pitch when the catcher was unable to find the ball and scored on centerfielder Carl Pungerchar's fielder's choice.

Euclid, which leads the GCC with an 11-2 record, is 26-3 on the season.

Trinity pitcher John Babin fired an 8-0 no-hitter against Gilmour, including 17 strikeouts and two walks.

First baseman Steve Cassidy went four-for-four with three runs batted in for the Trojans.

Bob Richards pitched his third one-hitter as Richmond Heights blanked Newbury, 5-0, and won the East Suburban Conference title with an 8-1 record.

Richards fanned ten and walked four for the 11-6-1 Spartans.

Elyria Catholic - Trinity

GARFIELD HEIGHTS — A pair of errors spelled doom for Elyria Catholic yesterday, as the Panthers dropped a 5-4 decision to Trinity.

Elyria Catholic, which took the lead with a run in the top of the seventh, dug its grave by allowing the first two Trojans to reach on errors in the bottom half of the frame. After an infield out, a walk loaded the bases. Mike Hudec and Ron Begitzer followed with RBI singles for the tying and winning runs.

The Panthers had jumped on top 1-0 in the second on a solo homer by Gary Grambley. Trinity tied in in the bottom half of the inning and took the lead in the third, 2-1.

Elyria Catholic bounced back with a pair of runs off of Trinity hurler John Babin in the fifth. Tom Smelko singled and Jim Flanigan walked to start things. Bryan Thomas singled in Smelko and Todd Diedrick drove home Flanigan.

Trinity tied it at 3-3 in the sixth, but the Panthers went ahead, 4-3, as Thomas doubled in Mike Knechtges.

Elyria Catholic (10-15) was to close out its season with a makeup game this afternoon at Cleveland Central Catholic.

Euclid edges Eastlake North

Euclid's regional tournament-bound Panthers edged Eastlake North, another regional semifinalist, 1-0, in nine innings yesterday in a Greater Cleveland Conference game on the losers' diamond.

Shortstop Jerry Drobnick singled with one out in the ninth, reached third on a wild pitch when the catcher was unable to find the ball and scored on centerfielder Carl Pungerchar's fielder's choice.

Euclid, which leads the GCC with an 11-2 record, is 26-3 on the season.

Trinity pitcher John Babin fired an 8-0 no-hitter against Gilmour, including 17 strikeouts and two walks.

First baseman Steve Cassidy went four-for-four with three runs batted in for the Trojans.

Bob Richards pitched his third one-hitter as Richmond Heights blanked Newbury, 5-0, and won the East Suburban Conference title with an 8-1 record.

Richards fanned ten and walked four for the 11-6-1 Spartans.

Rockets Dominate All-Star Military Football Eleven

The 10th Air Depot Wing Rockets, Alaska military football champions, dominate the Southern Division all-star team.

The team was chosen by sports writers and sportscasters who covered the games here.

There are seven Rockets on the offensive team, five on the defensive unit. Charley Maloney, tackle, and Ken Hawkins were spots on both teams, the only pair so honored.

The rest of the dream squad is made up of two Commandos and two Pioneers on the offensive team and three Pioneers, two Commandos and one Eagle on the defensive outfit.

Besides naming the all stars, the men chose Ken Hawkins the the outstanding lineman and Buck Stamp the outstanding back of the Southern Division. Both are Rockets. K. P. Hankes, of the Commandos, was picked as the best punter in the league while Stamp's educated toe won him the honor of outstanding placement kicker.

Thirteen area teams advance to regionals

North Ridgeville has four representatives; Sheffield Lake, Columbia each send two

Judie Asp
The Chronicle-Telegram

NORTH RIDGEVILLE — Thirteen local teams won District Hot Stove titles Sunday at four area sites and now advance to the Spencer Regional this Saturday and Sunday, July 25-26.

Regional winners will participate in the 50th annual State Hot Stove Tournament in Alliance on Aug. 1 and 2.

North Ridgeville leads the area, sending four teams to regional play.

The Royals captured a Class H (9-10) title at North Eaton with an eight-inning 7-4 win over a determined Columbia Exclusive squad.

North Ridgeville will have two representatives in Class G (11-12) in Casteel's and Insulate Management. Hall's Towing grabbed a Class F (13-14) regional berth.

The Royals, now 20-0 in league play, broke a 4-all deadlock with three runs in the top of the eighth. Nick Carpenter provided the game-winning RBI while Roger Smith added a pair of insurance runs with a home run.

"It was a great game on both sides," said Royals coach Chris Costin.

P.J. Mahone earned the win in relief of Tim Caton and Roger Smith. Mahone faced 14 batters in four innings of work, allowing no runs and no hits while recording eight strikeouts.

Carpenter, Mahone and David Mathews had two hits apiece for North Ridgeville. Jim Waite added a triple.

Insulate Management held a 10-3 lead heading into the seventh. Oberlin NACS plated four in the home half before NR managed the third out, winning 10-7.

"No, I wasn't getting nervous, but, yes, I was," said NR manager Tony Stross. "Our pitching and our defense win games for us. We also have a lot of good hitters and someone always comes up with the clutch hit."

It is Insulate's third trip to regional play in four years. The team carries a 23-1 record to Spencer this season.

Marcus Hooley earned the win, pitching the last 3⅔ innings. Hooley fanned 10, including striking out the side in the fourth and seventh innings.

"Marcus (Hooley) was awesome today," said Stross. "He had good command of his fastball and an excellent change-up."

Phillip Mook delivered a two-run homer and a pair of doubles for NR. Eric Palmieri added a home run and a double. Joe Cover, the starting pitcher, doubled.

Jordan Beard tripled for Oberlin while Gary Shannon and Brandon Metcalf ripped doubles.

Hall's, last year's state runner-up in Class G, broke open a close 5-1 game with a six-run sixth and a five-run seventh, eliminating North Olmsted Kiczek Builders 16-2.

"I wish I knew why we can't get going early in the ballgame," said Hall's manager Wayne Carter. "It's disappointing. We keep teams in games early when they shouldn't be."

Dan Machovina picked up the win, allowing two runs on one hit in six innings of work. Dan Sklenicka relieved, allowing no runs on one hit.

"Our pitchers throw strikes and that keeps us in the games. We have a good defense behind them," added Carter.

Sklenicka and Nick Russo contributed three RBIs apiece. Sklenicka had a two-run homer in the third. Super-sub Carl Jackson went 2-for-2 with one RBI. Machovina and Russo laced back-to-back triples in the seventh.

Sheffield Lake sends two into third week action — the Bandits in Class G and the Devil Rays in Class F.

Columbia also has a pair of regional participants in Gibbs Butchers Block (Class F and its Class EE (15-16) team. Gibbs scored two in the home half of the seventh for an 11-10 victory over Wellington M&M.

"This is our first regional appearance and the kids are thrilled to death," said Columbia manager Keith Lawson, whose squad improved to 17-2. "We were down 7-2 but the kids just kept plugging away."

Nick Dietrich got the job done for Gibbs on the mound and at the plate, earning the win in relief of Joe Waldecker and delivering the game-winning RBI. Dietrich also had a two-RBI double. Waldecker added a two-RBI single.

PARMA SUN POST

Namers ready for season

Thursday, April 17, 2008

By Mike Holzheimer
Parma Sun Post

The Holy Name baseball team is coming off a great year that saw the Green Wave capture a division crown in the North Coast League and a district championship.

A first-round regional loss last season to Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin has Don Smith's squad more than motivated and ready to make another serious post-season run this spring.

"I think we are very strong up the middle defensively," said Smith, who begins his third year as the bench boss. "We lost some good seniors from last year's team, but feel we have a good combination of returning players and those new faces who should fit in right away."

Returning to Smith's lineup in 2008 will be senior Bryce Bartch, a three-year starter in center field and a Cleveland State University recruit. Senior Danny Green will handle the catching chores and will take his baseball talents to Walsh University next year.

Other seniors who figure prominently are Andrew Nemecek (first base), Mike Novosel (third base), Ryan Amato (pitcher), Brett Reardon (second base) and pitcher Matt Ostry. Nemecek has signed a Division II letter of intent with Wheeling Jesuit for next fall, while Novosel and Amato are four and two-year varsity players respectively. Amato will also attend Walsh University for baseball next year, while Ostry returns with two years of varsity experience.

"Ryan (Amato) is our No. 1 pitcher," said Smith. "He has a really good change-up and breaking ball. His outing was outstanding against St. Edward in the first game. Ryan went seven innings and held Ed's to just three runs. We didn't hit and wound up losing the tough game, 3-2."

Junior Kurt Babin is projected as the team's No. 2 hurler with excellent control who hits the target very well. Junior Alex Gnezda is a catcher/outfielder candidate with junior Tom McCarthy (pitcher/outfielder) and junior Trevor Smith (shortstop) figuring prominently in the Holy Name plans as well.

"Offensively, we should be pretty good at the top," noted Smith. "Brett (Reardon) will lead off for us and has good speed. Trevor (Smith) is a solid contact guy in the batter's box and will hit in the second spot in the order. Alex (Gnezda) is our power guy and will bat in the third spot with Bryce (Bartch) hitting fourth. Bryce is our main supplier of power and has the whole baseball package."

Indeed. Bartch led the team in hits and runs batted in a year ago, while Green figures to round out the heart of the batting order by hitting fifth.

"The pitching will be key," said Smith, whose ballclub recorded an overall record of 17-6 last year. "We have some depth on the mound, which we didn't have last spring. When you look at us, you should see a pretty balanced team. Now, we just have to go out on the field and get it done."

Babin sure got things done by way of a 10-0 decision over North Olmsted a couple of weeks ago. The Holy Name pitcher twirled a three-hit shutout en route to the win, while Reardon had a pair of hits and two RBIs. Green added a double to the total, while Nemecek put together a two-hit game including a two-bagger.

Holy Name fell to Trinity (11-1) earlier and will travel to Archbishop Hoban for a key North Coast League game at 4:30 p.m. today.

Green Wave bounces Lions out of tournament

<B>Holy Name 6, Orange 2</B>

Kurt Babin (5-2, 1.60 ERA), a junior right-hander, allowed one earned run on four hits in 6 innings as the Green Wave beat the Lions in Division II district semifinal in Bedford.

Reliever Tyler Bowditch came on and got the final out after Orange loaded the bases in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Holy Name will play Padua today for the district championship.

"As long as I could throw a first-pitch strike, I could follow with whatever pitch I wanted to throw," said Babin, who struck out four and walked four.

The Green Wave, coached by Don Smith, delivered 11 hits, including two each by designated hitter Andrew Nemecek, first baseman Tom McCarthy and second baseman Brett Reardon. Right fielder Alex Gnezda and catcher Danny Green both scored runs after lining leadoff triples.

Posted by Mike Peticca on May 23, 2008 12:06 p.m.

Padua pitcher Jose Vega admitted it was a bit distracting in the bottom of the seventh inning when Bruins fans started singing his first name to the timeworn tune, "Ole, Ole, Ole, Ole."

"It's tough to try not to laugh and smile," Vega said with a shy grin after he pitched a complete game in Padua's 6-3 win over Benedictine in a Division II district semifinal baseball game Thursday.

Vega could laugh all he wanted when he hopped on the team bus and teammates picked up the "Jose, Jose, Jose, Jose," refrain. The surprising Bruins have won three tournament games after going 9-13 during the regular season.

"We're having a ball," said Vega, a sophomore right-hander. "The whole year has been up and down. We've picked a great time to peak."

Padua's win over first-seeded Benedictine (21-7) helped set up today's surprising district final against the Bruins' North Coast League foe, Holy Name (10-10). Kurt Babin's superb pitching keyed Holy Name's 6-2 win over Orange (14-8) in the second game of the doubleheader at Bedford.

Vega held Benedictine to seven hits. He struck out four, walked three and stranded nine Bengals runners on base, including seven in scoring position.

The Bruins backed their young pitcher in the field — making just a first-inning error — and at bat, with nine hits.

Second baseman Pat LaGuardia and catcher Adam Dennison both had two singles. LaGuardia's hits were both bunts, and he scored in Padua's two-run third inning and in the four-run fifth that built the Bruins' lead to 6-1.

"Their small ball and speed was something we couldn't contend with," said Benedictine coach Brian Sliwinski. "LaGuardia can fly."

Padua stole seven bases, including three by third baseman Jake Wetzel and two by LaGuardia.

"We wanted to throw the kitchen sink at them, and we did," Padua coach Pete Berrios said. "We played well fundamentally — played our best game of the year."

Kurt Babin (5-2, 1.47 ERA) is the mound ace. SWC, LEL mat powers clash Friday

What can you do for an encore following a weekend of high school wrestling which saw Rocky River edge North Olmsted and St. Joseph defeat St. Edward in two of the most exciting matches in recent years?

For starters, the Lake Erie League title should be decided Friday night when Brush travels to Garfield for a 7:30 p.m. battle. At the same time Bay Village visits Fairview to see who will remain undefeated in the Southwestern Conference.

An important independent battle will take place Friday as Orange hosts undefeated Nordonia. Saturday night John Marshall, second ranked in The Plain Dealer mat poll, faces a stiff challenge from visiting St. Edward.

Brush is 4-0 in the LEL and 5-1-1 overall while Garfield, recovering from a slow start, is 3-0-1 in league action and 3-2-1 overall.

Both teams appear to be strong and weak in the same weight classes, which calls for an even match — at least on paper.

Brush coach Buddy Young has four reliable winners in Bill Kingzett (126), Paul Silla (145), Tom Koren (175) and Bruce Gregory (185). The first three are juniors.

John Marshall has won 44 straight dual meets, and Lawyer coach Gene Gibbons won his 200th dual meet last Thursday, but the second ranked Lawyers will have their hands full with St. Edward.

Gibbons will be relying on Plain Dealer All-Scholastic Hollis Frierson (126), Dane Babin (98) and brother Scott (132), Mike Jones (112) and Rick Shannon (175).

St. Edward coach Howard Ferguson is looking for his young team to rebound after the close 27-19 loss to rival St. Joseph on Saturday.

"I don't like to lose," said Ferguson, "and that isn't so much because it's just a wrestling match, but because to me defeat means failure to reach your goal.

"The trouble in life today -- in business as well as in sports -- is that too many people are afraid of competition," he added. "The result is that many people sneer at success if it costs hard work, training and sacrifice."

Hard work helped Rocky River upset North Olmsted, 26-25, Friday night. "And we're a team that needed confidence," smiled assistant coach Clyde Simpson, filling in for head coach Jerry Olsen who is recuperating from a heart ailment.

Prior to the meet, Coach Simpson himself wasn't exactly bubbling with overconfidence. "I thought we might get shut out. North Olmsted is strong where we're strong — and weak where we're weak. We could have lost every match."

Marshall's mat team triumphs

John Marshall mat coach Gene Gibbons planned some surprises for St. Edward, but found he didn't need them as his Lawyers downed the Eagles, 27-20, Saturday night at Marshall.

Gibbons dropped two-time Plain Dealer All-Scholastic choice Hollis Frierson to 119 pounds to meet St. Edward ace Tim Welch, but the latter couldn't make weight and the big bout never materialized.

Frierson did get the undefeated Lawyers, second ranked in the PD mat poll, rolling with a fall in 3:25. Marshall trailed after the first three weight classes, 9-0.

"Hollis' pin sparked the whole team," said Gibbons. "I had a sinking feeling after losing the first three matches. He gave us a big lift."

The Lawyers' Joe DeLuca (126) then won what Gibbons called the key match of the night when he edged Gene Lavelle, 2-1. DeLuca's older brother Pete was a state runnerup at 132 two years ago.

"Joe finally looked like Pete tonight," smiled Gibbons. "It was one of the most important matches he'll ever win for us."

Gibbons' other surprise was dropping Rick Shannon to 167 pounds, and he responded with a pin at the expense of Joe Elinsky in 3:09.

The Lawyers also had a clutch victory from Mark Helderman at 155 pounds. Helderman, a transfer student from St. Edward, decisioned Chris Dempsey, 6-3.

St. Ed's coach Howard Ferguson was also without the services of John McNulty (105), who, like Welch, had failed to make weight.

Richmond Heights won its third straight match in the East Suburban League by whipping Kirtland, 46-12.

The Spartans, perennial ESL champions, rode the victory tide via pins from Ron Bendes (98), two-time state champion Jim Hanson (112), Bob Majer (126), Jim Sciaulino (119) and heavyweight Ken Loushin.

Richmond is now 5-2. An independent struggle saw Collinwood come from behind to down University School, 28-21.

Senate, Cuyahoga league tourneys head mat action

The Senate Tournament, in its seventh year, has been dominated by the second-ranked Lawyers. Only John Adams has broken into the top slot among city schools, and that was in the tournament's initial year.

Two league tournaments and three important dual meets highlight a heavy weekend of high school wrestling action.

John Marshall will be gunning for its sixth Senate Tournament title in a row at South High, while Warrensville will defend its Cuyahoga Conference Tourney crown at Strongsville.

Key dual meets on Friday night pit Brush at Lakewood, Eastlake North at Maple Heights and Bay Village at North Olmsted.

Three reigning champions are back at different weights. Two are from John Marshall— Mike Jones (112) and Hollis Frierson (119)— while the third is Carl Dooley (145) from Lincoln West.

Besides Jones and Frierson, Lawyer coach Gene Gibbons has proven winners in Dana Babin (98), Joe DeLuca (126), Scott Babin (132), Dennis Ryan (138), Rick Shannon (167 or 175) and Frank Pivik (185).

St. Ignatius has improved every year under coach Mike Setta, and the Wildcats will be counting on important points from Jim Coyne (138), John Murray (145), Owen Ginley (167), Bob Petrus (185) and heavyweight Jim Gallaher to keep John Marshall from turning the tournament into a rout.

Marshall matmen grab Senate lead

To nobody's surprise, John Marshall is leading the seventh annual Senate Wrestling Tournament going into this afternoon's semifinal round at South High.

The Lawyers, ranked no. 2 in The Plain Dealer mat poll, have 33½ points and 11 wrestlers remaining in the winner's bracket. St. Ignatius is second with 23 points and eight wrestlers left, while John F. Kennedy is third at 22½ points and eight left.

The power of the pin prevailed at Friday's opening rounds. No less than eight matmen pinned their first two foes.

Most impressive of the group was John McCafferty (155) of West Tech, who had falls in lightening quick times of 30 and 37 seconds.

Also recording a pair of pins were Paul Polace (105) of South, Donny Page (112) of East High, William Jones (126) of John F. Kennedy, Carl Dooley (145) of Lincoln West, Mark Durana (126) of Rhodes, Rick Shannon (167) of John Marshall, and Jeff Anger (185) and Alex Rychlik (HVY) of Collinwood.

The biggest upset of the night took place at 98 pounds, when South's Mark Sowden handed top-seeded Fred Mahnke of Rhodes an 11-9 setback.

Only three bouts went into overtime, but one proved costly to St. Ignatius' title hopes when Ed Gakanas of Collinwood edged Jim Coyne, 3-2.

Three-team race builds at Marshall

Lakewood was leading with 63½ points and six grapplers who qualified for next week's district at Baldwin-Wallace. St. Edward was right behind with 61½ points and seven qualifiers, while host John Marshall was third with 60½ points and six qualifiers.

Three wrestlers had three pins going into the finals— Mike Mahoney (112) of Rocky River, John Maksym (175) of Rhodes and heavyweight Tom Cousineau of St. Ed.

Maksym was a surprise. He was trailing Rich Kalski of Parma, 17-0, after two periods in their semifinal battle when he registered his fall.

Rocky River's George Werling, a Southwestern Conference champ, stunned Parma's Tony Arlia in the semi's with a fall in 5:57. Arlia was a Brecksville Tournament titlist in December.

Another SWC champion from Rocky River, Mike Deane (105), was edged by Cuyahoga Conference runner-up Rich Baldizzi, 1-0, in the semi's.

St. Edward coach Howard Ferguson was delighted with his team's showing after recent disappointments in dual meets.

"We always had four weak weights, and then we had a rash of injuries," explained Ferguson. "Our trouble was we had only ninth graders to fill in.

"But you wait and see how well we do in future years," said Ferguson. "We're not too bad now."

John Marshall stormed from sixth place on Friday to third with a strong afternoon of wrestling.

"We had too many first round byes," said Lawyer assistant coach Ed Haller. "That put us in a deep hole, and it's not easy trying to catch Lakewood and St. Ed when you're as far back as we were."

HOW THEY STAND

Lakewood 63½ (6 district qualifiers), St. Edward 61½ (7), John Marshall 60½ (6), Strongsville 52½ (5), Rhodes 43 (4), Rocky River 42½ (4), Normandy 38 (4), Padua 37 (4), St. Ignatius 34½ (2), North Royalton 26½ (2), West Tech 26 (4), Parma 21 (1), Brecksville 18 (2), Lincoln West 15½ (1), East Tech 2, Max Hayes 0.
